

INSTRUCTIONS FOR EVALUATION AND ACCREDITATION OF SELF-PACED TRAINING (formally known as Distance Education)

WASHINGTON CERTIFICATION SERVICES GREEN RIVER COLLEGE

1. The following formats will be considered Self-Paced Training and will be evaluated based on the criteria listed in Guidance for the Evaluation and Accreditation of Self-Paced Training and Washington State Department of Health's professional growth and relevancy guidelines:

- Online/Internet
- CD-ROM
- Correspondence Course
- Video tape
- DVD

2. All submittals must be made using the Application for Evaluation of Self-Paced Training. The form is available on the Washington Certification Services web page at www.wacertservices.org.
3. Completed document packages can be submitted by email to SubmittalsWCS@greenriver.edu or by mail to:

Washington Certification Services
Green River College
1221 D Street N. E.
Auburn, WA 98002

5. The sponsor must complete an Application for Evaluation of Self-Paced Training with all required attachments for EACH course submitted for evaluation within 45 calendars in advance of training.
6. Incomplete copies of an application or applications submitted without all required attachments will not be evaluated.
7. Submittals of curriculum with significant references to state drinking water regulations other than Washington State's may be evaluated but are discouraged.
8. All products are submitted for evaluation at no charge and become the property of Washington State Department of Health. Web access for review of online training must also be provided at no charge.
9. The sponsor will receive a written determination for each course submitted for evaluation.
10. A list of all Self-Paced Training courses approved and accredited will be made available to water works operators and other interested parties.
11. Water works operators enrolling in approved Self-Paced Training must follow standard procedures for completing and submitting all required documentation to Washington Certification Services.